

Who's Ethel?

Many local folks are familiar with Ethel Hurst. She is a long-time Lovell resident, has her finger on the pulse of the community and writes a local column for the Conway Daily Sun and the Bridgton News. Through this column, Ethel keeps everyone informed as to what is happening around town. She is allowing me to take some items from her weekly column and repost them here. This feature will appear intermittently and will be called:
